

PERMISSIVE ACCESS

This 170 metre permissive footpath links an existing public footpath to the National Cycle Network. To the south of the path is Nine Wells; the spring-line source of Hobson's Brook, an historic watercourse which flows into the centre of Cambridge.

This access has been provided under the Department for Environment, Food & Rural Affairs' farm conservation schemes as managed by Natural England, which help farmers and land managers protect and improve the countryside, its wildlife and history. It is permissive access and no new rights of way are being created. Existing rights of way are not affected. Please follow the Countryside Code and observe any other requirements shown above. Do not disturb wildlife, livestock or other visitors and in particular keep dogs under control. This is working farmland so please take care; people using this site do so at their own risk. Access ends on 31st July 2019.
