This access is provided under the Department for Environment, Food & Rural Affairs' farm conservation schemes as managed by Natural England, helping farmers and land managers protect and improve the countryside, its wildlife and history. It is permissive access and no new rights of way are being created. Existing rights of way are not affected. Please follow the Country Code & local signs. CRoW Open Access is provided under the CRoW Act 2000 and gives rights of access to open country (For details & restrictions see <https://www.gov.uk/right-of-way-open-access-land/overview>). Do not disturb wildlife, livestock or other visitors and in particular keep dogs under control. This is working farmland so please take care. People using this site do so at their own risk. Access ends on 31st July 2019.

For access related queries please call the Permissive Access Team on 0300 060 1114 (Office Hours).
For all other Defra related queries please contact the Defra Helpline on 08459 335577 (Office Hours).
For Public Rights of Way queries please contact your local County Council.
